THINGS SHIFT QUICKLY IN BASEBALL GAME

Some years ago the baseball world had a small thrill when Manager Frank Chance of the New York Yankees traded Hal Chase to Manager Jimmy Callahan of the Sox for Rolfe Zeider and Babe Borton.

Just to show how quickly things shift in baseball it is interesting to note that only one of the mentioned is still in the American league. This is Babe Borton of the St. Louis Browns. But in the meantime he has been released to the Coast league, jumped to the Federal and went to the Browns in the peace treaty.

Of the other characters, Frank Chance is now managing the Los Angeles club; Jimmy Callahan has gone to Pittsburgh, where he is boss of the outfit; Zeider is with the Cubs, and Hal Chase is playing with the Cincinnati Reds.

Callahan With Pittsburgh.
Another sidelight to the deal is that Callahan, after being out of baseball for a year, accepted the management of the Los Angeles club, but turned it down later when he got the Pittsburgh proposition. Los Angeles then turned to Chance, and he took it.

Today we find Hal Chase with the Reds doing his best to beat Callahan and the Pirates, and succeeding pretty frequently, and Zeider acting in a similar manner with the Cubs.

Giants' New Bat Boy
They say he receives $30,000 per summer and holds quite a chunk of stock, still John J. McGraw is just one of the boys when the Giants are out there on the field every day. If you don't believe it, says the St. Louis Times, listen to this:

When the Cardinals finished their fourth training Friday Doyle was the first batter up in the fifth.

"Come on, boys, hurry it along," called Umpire Byron, and Doyle, from second base, was running to the plate.

"Hey, boy, oh, boy, bring out my bat," said Doyle. One guess—who brought out the bat?—No one but McGraw. The Little Napoleon grabbed the club and skipped out to the plate. Yes, he's the bat boy these days.

Has Cravath Lost Wallop?
The home-run king has not done any great execution with his bat so far this season and as he is not a very fast outfielder it may be possible that he will be replaced before the season is very much further advanced.

The Phillies have recently signed Claude Cooper, who was with the Brooklyn last season, and it is whispered that Cooper has been secured in the belief that Cravath is slipping. Cooper had a $7,500 contract with the Manager Griffith has filed complaint with President Ben Johnson that pitchers on certain teams are firing the ball at the heads of the batters.

If Sam Crawford is to be given a seat on the Detroit bench we know a lot of ball players who ought to be picking curnants out of rice pudding.

George Sisler, the star of the St. Louis Browns, was badly spiked in a play at first base during the series with the Red Sox and was forced to lay off.

The veteran Danny Hoffman, let out by Bridgeport, declares he is done with baseball and will attempt no more comebacks. He has gone into business in Bridgeport.

We generally notice that cities that brag about their climate, and their beautiful streets, and the number of their churches, are too busy to mention their baseball teams.

Robert Hogg, the first baseman of the University of Missouri ball team for three seasons past, has joined Hannibal in the Three I league. He will be used in the outfield.

Fans in Hartford are divided as to placing the blame for the poor showing of Charley Wagner's team. Some say Wagner has failed, while others say Jim Clark's interference is to blame.

BALL GAME SUNDAY.

The baseball fans of Chickasha will have an opportunity Sunday of seeing one of the best ball games that will be played here this season when Chickasha and Anadarko meet for their third game. These teams have played two games, Chickasha winning both games by scores of 1 to 0 and 2 to 0. Anadarko is coming strong for this game and claim they are not going to be defeated, and the Chickasha team are going to be right up on their toes and confident of winning. Blase for Chickasha and Hodgins for Anadarko will do the twirling and they are the two best amateur pitchers in this part of the country.

GUNS NOT ALWAYS RELIABLE

Here's Proof That a Club Is Sometimes a Far More Serviceable Weapon.

Much is being said nowadays about the precision and deadliness of modern weapons of warfare, but a West Virginian, according to a story sent out from Moorfield, shows that such weapons cannot always be depended upon. It appears that a bear had been feasting upon choice specimens of a flock of sheep until their owner, Mr. Benjamin Whetzel, decided to have it out with Br'er Bruin. So arming himself with a gun, he sallied forth in quest of the sheep killer. Fortunately his search was not in vain, for he soon came upon the marauder and let go with his gun.

It is the unexpected that generally
